Recommended the grant of a Sasoik of Rs 15/ a month to the Lakkur Temple from the funds of Sri Venkataramana Swami Temple at Chikka Tirupati. On this office docket No 2376 dy 23d March 1911, the Dy. Commr was informed that the income of the Chikka Tirupati Temple was falling off, and was asked to report if he was of opinion that a grant from the funds of this institution might be sanctioned to the Lakkur Temple that officer reports that the Dharmadarsis of the Chikka Tirupati Temple have resolved that a grant of Rs 5/ per mensem may be made to the Lakkur Temple, and has submitted a copy of their resolution passed on 25th March 1911.

AV(115) 8.7.1914 The Dy Com's letter under disposal is a reply from Surgeon Madhava Rao Sahib docket No. 2376/M-7-107-07-6 dy 23-3-11 (over 3 years ago) whether in spite of the income of the Tirupati Temple falling off, the Dy Com. is still of the opinion that a grant from the funds of this temple to the Temple at at Lakkur can be made. The Dy Com^r simply sends up the resolution of the Dharmadarsis of the Tirupati temple that a grant of Rs 5- may be made from the funds of that temple to the Lakkur temple.

The ~~previous~~ Notes & orders in the previous file No 3107 of 07 show that the case was definitely made out for the sanction of the grant under the Regulation. Government pointed a source from which a perpetual grant to the temple could be met. Some further enquiry in the matter seems to be called for viz (1) What are the different sources of income & the amounts under each? (2) Is a scale of expenses prescribed for the temple; if so, when & on what order (3) What are the savings, if any, ~~of~~ accruing after meeting the expenses & are they not necessary for repairs of the building & other unforeseen charges? May Notes be called for from the Dy Com^r?

d (4) What is the surplus amount both invested & uninvested at the credit of the temple

RJ

If it is the Tirupati temple for which information is required it should be available in the file a scale having been fixed & Lakkur temple is a provincial one.
